

More SDMAs Coming!

Facilitators in each of SDMNY's four sites gather monthly (remotely, of course!) to deal with administrative issues, share best practices and plan for the future. Led by Site Coordinator Joan Cornachio, NYC facilitators met earlier this week to discuss SDMA signing ceremonies that will be coming up in the next few months. Some ceremonies have been held up because of the Covid-19 pandemic, but many more Decision-Makers are now in Phase 2 or Phase 3, and we are looking forward to more than 40 signings by early next year!

While the numbers are exciting, the real thrill is in the amazing stories of each individual Decision-Maker, and all the hard work they, their supporters and facilitators have put in to get to their SDMAs.

Congratulations and keep up the great work!
