

SDMNY Frequently Asked Questions

What will I get out of participating in the SDMNY Project?

You will learn decision-making skills you can use now and in the future.

You will choose supporters to help you make decisions in the ways you choose.

You will have a Supported Decision-Making Agreement (SDMA) to use with doctors, banks, or anyone else that asks you for a legal document to use their services.

How long does it take to finish the 3 phases and have a signed Supported Decision-Making Agreement?

It takes about 6-9 months to complete the SDMNY process.

How will SDMNY use information about decision-makers?

SDMNY promises to keep information about you private and secure.

What if I want to stop working on my Supported Decision-Making Agreement?

It is your choice to participate. You can stop at any time.

What if I have a suggestion for SDMNY or want to tell you about something that isn't working well?

If you are not happy with something about the SDMNY Project, you can share that with your facilitator, or you can:
