

This week's Good News is that we are still here!
(for details, click here for a letter from the SDMNY Director Naomi Brickel)

Because we'll be working with a smaller team, we may not be able to send you Good News on our previous Friday schedule, but we will continue to share and celebrate the stories of Decision-Makers, supporters, and all the others who make our work possible, as we are able, so STAY TUNED!
